ASU-Beebe: Open Enrollment for Adult Education Classes

BEEBE, Ark. – Enrollment for General Educational Development (GED) classes is open at the Arkansas State University-Beebe Adult Education centers, located on the Beebe, Searcy, and Heber Springs campuses, as well as the Augusta Public Library and the Westside High School in Greers Ferry.

The Adult Education centers provide free instruction and testing to students 18 years of age or older, who are seeking to obtain their GED diploma. Convenient sessions are available during mornings, afternoons, and at night. ASU-Beebe Adult Education also provides services to 16 and 17 year olds that meet the state minimum requirements.

Many students need to earn their GED diploma for college entrance or the workforce. The GED test has opened doors to better jobs and college programs for more than 18 million graduates since 1942. The GED test is accepted by virtually all U.S. colleges and employers. GED Testing Service is a joint venture between the American Council on Education, a major coordinating body for higher education institutions, and Pearson, a leading learning company.

Additionally, classes are available for high school graduates who need a refresher on some subjects before beginning their college education.

Also, Adult Education assists employers to provide free training for employees on basic skills needed for continued employment.

English as a Second Language (ESL) classes are offered free for those who want to learn to speak, write, and read English better. These free classes are offered at the ASU-Beebe Searcy Campus.

Classes begin August 20, 2018. New enrollment continues throughout the semester and classes fill up quickly. For more information on each ASU-Beebe Adult Education Center, call the Searcy Campus at (501) 207-6290, Beebe Campus at (501) 882-1540, or the Heber Springs Campus at (501) 362-1270.
